

Don't Be Afraid of World Civilizations!

IDS 2213/ HIS 2133

Introduction to World Civilizations (Since the 15th Century)

will be offered Downtown this Spring 2014 semester!

Monday-Wednesday 6-7:15 p.m.

So why take it?

It fulfills the WSI core curriculum credit!

Class topics: Art, Music, Drama, Comedy, Scandals, Fashion, Fads, Heroes, villains, rich and famous, poor and oppressed peoples (throughout History), exotic places, and foreign films

Course Description:

This is a general introduction to World History since the late 15th century. It provides a broad overview of the pattern of development of major civilizations and their interactions. We will examine the events, institutions, beliefs, and practices that involved and affected large numbers of people and laid the foundations of the modern world.

Questions? Contact your Advisor or the Instructor, Rhonda Minten.