

PAD Undergraduate Classes at the Downtown Campus

PAD 3033 - Introduction to Nonprofit Agencies

Instructor: Megan Legacy, CEO at SA Hope Center

Monday 9:00am - 10:15am

Durango Building 2.304

Learn what it takes to lead in the nonprofit world! This course covers the basics of running a nonprofit, including fundraising, marketing, volunteer coordination, program planning, and evaluation. You'll explore how nonprofits fit into society and what sets them apart from businesses and government. Hands-on projects, service learning, and building a nonprofit portfolio are all part of the experience.

PAD 3133 - Politics and Policies of San Antonio and South Texas

Instructor: Lori Houston, Assistant City Manager of the City of San Antonio

Monday 10:30am - 11:45am

Durango Building 3.214

Discover how San Antonio has grown and changed through public and private decision-making. This course explores the city's political, social, and economic development, focusing on how local governments shape policy. Students will visit sites throughout downtown San Antonio as part of this class.
