

PEOPLES, CULTURES & MOVEMENTS OF THE AFRICAN DIASPORA

AAS 4013-001 - Spring 2021
Synchronous Tues/Thurs 2:00-3:15
Dr. Marc Perry

This course offers a survey of the African Diaspora from a cultural perspective to explore the ways African descendent peoples in the Americas have fashioned black selves, community, and struggle through transnational imagination and action. The role of black social movements, cultural practice, music, and the arts will be considered in terms of how they have come to shape the African Diaspora an evolving space of black social making and moving.
Credit hours: 3.

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURE, LEADERSHIP, AND SOCIAL ISSUES

AAS 2113-001 - Spring 2010
Synchronous Tues/Thurs 10-11:15
Dr. Marc Perry

This course provides an historical survey of varying ways African Americans have sought human freedom through different moments and means of “black” organizing and struggle. Key social movements and figures from slave rebellions, to abolitionism, to the 1960s Black Freedom Movements, to Black Lives Matter will be explored regarding the ways people continue to imagine and create more just and equitable possibilities of blackness.
Credit hours: 3.
