

German Cinema and History

GER 4213 / MES 3113 / HIS 3803
Instructor: Dr. Christopher Wickham

Fall Semester 2015
TR 1:00-2:15

In this upper division course students have the chance to develop their video literacy and interpretive skills, while becoming acquainted with German film-making.

The focus is on German films (including Austria and Switzerland) and their treatment of history.

Topics include the 1920s, the Third Reich, World War II, relations with Jews, the postwar era, terrorism, and divided Germany.
