

GLOBAL BLACKNESS & AFRO-LATINIDAD

AAS 3023/MAS 4953 Spring 2023

In-Person on Tues, online on Thurs 11:30am-12:15pm

Dr. Marc Perry, Dept of Race, Ethnicity, Gender & Sexuality Studies

marc.perry@utsa.edu

This course offers a survey of the African Diaspora from a cultural perspective exploring the ways African descendent peoples in the Americas have created Black selves, community, and struggle through transnational imagination and action. The role of Black social movements, Afro-Latinidad, culture, music, and the arts will be explored in terms of how they have shaped the African Diaspora as an evolving space of Black social making and moving.
3 credit hours.