

WGSS 4953 and WGSS 4973

Special Topics in Women's Studies: Gender in Latin America

An exploration of gender politics in Latin America through an intersectional lens emphasizing the role of feminist activism. Students learn about the experiences of diverse women and LGBTQIA+ people in relation to body politics, feminicides, repro rights, economic justice, democracy, and the state.

Taught by Dr. Carolina Arango-Vargas

Contact:

carolina.arango-vargas@utsa.edu

Main Campus:
Wednesday, 2:00-2:50 PM
MH 3.03.12
CRN: 40704

