

VETERANS' VOICES

A discussion program series for veterans, their families and friends, and other interested civilians:

Veterans' Voices brings veterans, military families, and members of the public together in small groups to read aloud from literary texts about war, military service, and the return to civilian life. After the readings, participants engage in facilitated conversations that explore how the texts relate to their own experiences and allow for shared reflection on combat and civic responsibility.

This event is free and open to the public.

November 1
5:00–7:00 p.m.

November 13
5:00–7:00 p.m.

UTSA | 1604 Campus
John Peace Library
JPL 4.04.22

Participants are welcome and encouraged to attend multiple sessions but are not required to do so.

RSVP at www.humanitiestexas.org/veterans

Parking passes for any UTSA garage will be available to those who RSVP.

For more information, contact:
512-440-1991 or programs@humanitiestexas.org.

Veterans' Voices is made possible with a Dialogues on the Experience of War grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

