Interested in a health profession?

Know what you need to do to be admitted to a health professions program?

What schools offer the training for the health profession you want to pursue?

Do not miss this opportunity to meet with representatives of 70+ health professions programs from within and outside of the state of Texas. Attend various informational seminars covering topics such as becoming a competitive medical or dental school applicant, exploring nursing pathways, life as a health professional, and roles of physical and occupational therapists.
