

This course will examine theories of social justice, social change, leadership styles, and grassroots organizing for creating meaningful social change. By studying the history and legacy of activism among Mexican American and other Latina/o/x communities, it will provide students with skills sets to become effective leaders.

Si se Puede! Latino Activism

Mexican American Studies 4013 | Dra. Sonya M. Alemán |

MW 2-3:15 pm | Synchronous | Spring 2021