

BLACK SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

AAS 4133 Spring 2024

On-Line Mon 1:00pm-3:45pm

Dr. Marc Perry, Dept of Race, Ethnicity, Gender & Sexuality Studies

marc.perry@utsa.edu

This course offers an historical survey of Black Social Movements through a global lens to explore different moments and ways African descendant people have collectively organized and moved in the pursuit of social justice and human freedom. Interwoven histories of race, identity, culture, anti-blackness, revolution, decolonization, and intersectionality among others will be examined in the global shaping and making of Black communities in social action. (3 Credit hours)