

SUMMER 2022

EDU 4953

Special Studies in Education

Law & Ethics

Dr. David Thompson (david.thompson@utsa.edu)

Be in the Know!

Are you unaware of the legal and ethical challenges you will face as teachers? Are you interested in how you can be an effective advocate for yourself and your students? Are you interested in how the legislative, executive, and judicial systems work? Are you interested in discussing current education law topics such as student speech on campus, off-campus, and on the Internet; the rights of students with disabilities; the rights and responsibilities of public school employees; the rights of transgender students; the law on library books, and your ethical responsibilities, just to name a few? If you answered yes to one or more of these questions, then this class is for you! We will discuss these current ethical & legal issues and much, much more in this fast-paced, online hybrid class during the first summer term of 2022! You won't believe how much you'll learn in such a short time!

Course modality: Hybrid 2/3 (meets on Zoom MWF, rest online)

Course time: MWF 11:00 am – 12:30 pm, Zoom

Course dates: 5/30/22 through 7/5/22 (first Zoom class 6/1/2022, last Zoom class 7/1/2022)

Section number: 01F

CRN: 35296

Register Now!

breaks kept us questions real content us helpful Thompson entertaining understand interesting well informative detailed presentation references engaging kept made easy understand information fun Dr Thompson easy examples polls lot really enjoyed relevant really

UTSA Educational Leadership and Policy Studies