RE: Reminder to advising: Honors College as a program, not degree-granting

DATE: January 17, 2020

This memo is in reference to non-Honors College advising and graduation requirements. Completion of Honors College requirements, including minimum GPA, does not impact graduation. The Honors College is not a degree-granting program. If any advisor has questions regarding Honors requirements for a specific student, please contact the student's Honors College advisor listed in Navigate.
