

Department of Philosophy and Classics
College of Liberal and Fine Arts
University of Texas at San Antonio

Welcomes you to an informative and explorative presentation on Hinduism

“10 Fundamental Principles of Hinduism”

SPEAKER: Swami Shivatmananda
Resident spiritual guide for Chinmaya Mission San Antonio

When: 3 PM – 5 PM
Thursday, April 20, 2023

Place: McKinney Humanities Building (MH): Room: 2.01.40

About the Presentation

Hinduism, one of the oldest theological and philosophical systems in human history, is practiced by hundreds of millions of people all over the world. Come, as we explore, participate, and learn from this presentation of 10 Fundamental Principles of The Avaita (Nondual) philosophy of Living from this ancient religion.

Speaker Profile

Swamiji graduated from the University of California at Davis with a degree in Electrical Engineering and worked as an engineer for over 10 years in Northern California. He embarked on his monastic journey in 2002, under the guidance of Swami Tejoymanandaji and the tutelage of Swami Ishwaranandaji, as a member of the 12th brahmachari batch at the Sandeepany Sadhanalaya in Mumbai, India. After establishing a new home for Chinmaya Mission Austin, Swamiji undertook the formation of Chinmaya Mission San Antonio, starting in the year 2017. In addition to his responsibilities to the greater San Antonio area, Swamiji provides guidance to Chinmaya Mission centers in Beaumont, Portland, Calgary, and Austin.

ALL ARE WELCOME

Meet the Speaker and have refreshments after the presentation.

For more information, please contact Prof. James R. Adair: 210-458-6216 or James.Adair@utsa.edu