

Sign up !

for

African American in Sports

AAS 4013: Special Topics: African Americans in Sports

This course will explore historical and contemporary issues connected to the African American experience in sports, nationally and internationally. Concepts and information will include prominent African American figures in sports, the discourse on race and sports, and the contributions of African Americans athletes.