

Sign up for Fall 2025:

Leadership in the Global Arena

MDS 4953.002

Tu/Th 2:30pm – 3:45pm

This class is designed to empower aspiring leaders with the skills and insight they need to excel in today's interconnected world.

Whether you aim to lead in a multinational corporation, a nonprofit organization, or as an entrepreneur, this course offers the tools you need to lead with confidence.

“This is one of the most practical courses I've taken at UTSA! We covered so many great topics—motivating people, productivity, strategy development, working with the media, and others. I loved this course.”

*Aydan Villarreal
UTSA Student Body President*

Through an interactive approach, students will grow their self, team, and organizational leadership skills. The course includes a variety of approaches including hands-on leadership practice, case studies, and guest speakers to further develop skills to lead in various contexts, cultures, and countries.

No interview required.

For more information contact Brian Rendell
brian.rendell@utsa.edu