

THE DEPARTMENT OF COUNSELING OPEN RANK FACULTY
SEARCH CANDIDATE RESEARCH PRESENTATION

“Test-retest Reliability of the Rosenberg Self-Esteem Scale and the Spence Children Anxiety Scale for Children with Specific Learning Disabilities”

Dr. Malvika Behl

February 7, 2024

1:15 PM

Room: DB 2.206

Zoom ID: 216 322 5767

Dr. Malvika Behl is an Associate Professor and Chair of the West Texas A&M University Counselor Education Program. She holds a PhD in Counselor Education and Supervision. Malvika is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC; TX) and School Counselor (OH), with seven years of experience in academia, teaching counseling courses. Malvika has worked with both adults and children in individual and group counseling settings. Her research interests are international students and their adjustment to academia, Children and families of children with Specific Learning Disabilities, and school counseling delivered in an online setting.

For more information contact Dr. Jennifer Cook, jennifer.cook@utsa.edu, or Dr. Priscilla Prasath,
priscilla.prasath@utsa.edu