

PREPARING EFFECTIVE PRESENTATIONS FOR EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCES-AERA

- Tuesday, March 27, 2018
- 4:00-5:00pm
- Graduate Student Professional Development Center (GSR 1.204)

Are you busily preparing your presentations for the American Educational Research Association (AERA) or other educational conference? Want to learn strategies and tips for effectively engaging your audience? Come by the UTSA Graduate Student Professional Development Center to learn about presentation style, communicating your research results effectively, and preparing your slides or poster for maximum impact. This session is open to all graduate students, especially those in the College of Education and Human Development.

Join Dr. Mariela A. Rodríguez as she facilitates this important session for graduate students interested in learning strategies to enhance their conference presentations.

Mariela A. Rodríguez, Ph.D. is a professor in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies in the College of Education and Human Development at UTSA. She also serves as Associate Dean of the Graduate School and Director of Teaching, Learning, and Professional Development. Dr. Rodríguez is currently the President of the University Council for Educational Administration (UCEA).

Click directly on the hyperlink below to register for this session.

register here