

2015 Superintendents' Symposium

"The Promise & the Hope of House Bill 5"

A community discussion open to the public to learn how this important legislation will impact the future of our students and our economy

Wednesday, February 4, 2015

Buena Vista Building, Aula Canaria Lecture Hall (1.328)

UTSA Downtown Campus

Reception: 5 - 5:30 p.m. | Program: 5:30 - 7 p.m.

Featuring Key Note Speaker:

Dr. Susan Simpson Hull, Grand Prairie ISD and 2005 Superintendent of the Year

With a Brief Overview of HB 5

by Dr. Jeff Goldhorn, Associate Director, Region 20

Panel Discussion, followed by Audience Q&A

Panel Moderator, Dr. John Folks, Senior Lecturer, Educational Leadership & Policy Studies, UTSA

Panelists:

Janna Hawkins, Associate Superintendent for Instruction & Technology Services, North East ISD

Dr. Jo-Carol Fabianke, Vice Chancellor, Academic Success, Alamo Colleges

Dr. Eustace S. Lewis, Parent and Secretary, Board of Trustees, Fort Sam Houston ISD

John Dewey, Business Leader, Board Member and Past Chair, San Antonio Manufacturers Association

Sponsored by:

The UTSA Center for Educational Leadership, Policy and Professional Development

The UTSA College of Education and Human Development

The Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies

Complimentary Parking in Lot D3, beneath IH-35 at the corner of Cesar Chavez at South Pecos/La Trinidad streets

For more information, please contact the Center's Executive Director, Dr. Julian Treviño, at julian.trevino@utsa.edu or Program Coordinator, Nancy Scott Jones, at nancy.jones@utsa.edu.