With Public Education Coordinator:

Kimberly Berry

Kimberly Berry is an Education Coordinator at the Rape Crisis Center in San Antonio, Texas. Since joining RCC's Education Department in 2013, Kimberly has connected more than 1,000 youth with healthy relationship programs focused on addressing issues of gender and race inequality, power, and consent. She works to prevent sexual violence throughout the city through partnerships with schools, universities, and community organizations. Kimberly is a member of the Alamo Area Coalition Against Trafficking and San Antonio's International Woman's Day March Committee. She graduated in 2013 from Trinity University with a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology.
