

Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies
College of Education and Human Development

The Urban School Leaders Collaborative PLÁTICA SERIES

“Educational Leaders are Engaged Scholars”

Featuring

Fernando Valle

Texas Tech University

March 18, 2025

UTSA – Downtown Campus

Gregory Luna Room

6:30 pm

Complimentary Self-Parking
in Cattleman Square Lot

Fernando Valle, Ed.D., is a Professor in the Educational Psychology, Leadership, and Counseling Department at Texas Tech University. Previously, he was Department Chair, Educational Leadership Program Coordinator, and Director of Federal and State Grants. Dr. Valle has successfully secured over $12 million in external research funding to support his work on leadership development through a focus on social justice and critical perspectives, aimed at preparing the next generation of executive, school, and community leaders.

Kindly RSVP:

For more information contact

USLC Coordinator:

Dr. Juan Manuel Niño

The USLC is the Inaugural Recipient of the UCEA
Exemplary Educational Leadership Preparation Program Award

