

Join us at our Solutions for People with Disabilities Conference in San Antonio Texas. Ron Lucey Executive Director of the Texas Governor's Committee on People with Disabilities will be present.

The Omni Hotel at the Colonnade

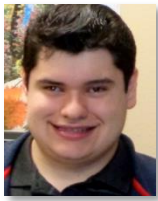

9821 Colonnade Blvd. San Antonio, TX 78230

Monday, March 14th 3:00 PM to 6:00 PM

Specialives ® is dedicated to assisting persons with disabilities and their families. We improve the quality of life and lower costs for people with disabilities while making the transition to independence of young people simple and easy.

Dr. Temple Grandin's presentation, eloquently describes the challenges she has faced and offers no-nonsense ideas on how others dealing with disabilities can meet these obstacles and improve the quality of their lives.

Grant Manier who will introduce Dr. Temple Grandin is an artist and a special needs advocate living with autism. He has daily challenges and struggles; Manier has turned his disability into his ABILITY to raise awareness of special talents among those living with different abilities. An art exhibit will be presented after the event.

By attending, participants can:

•	Create a learning environment to accommodate sensory challenges
•	Distinguish between voluntary behaviors and involuntary behaviors
•	Utilize, responsibly, alternative and/or conventional medicine
•	Illustrate ways to develop talents into a career path for individuals

Deborah M. Oveland is a board certified family nurse practitioner, author, advocate, keynote speaker, and the founder of Special Needs Education Consultant Texas, LLC d/b/a Specialives, a Texas Limited Liability Company since 2012. Specialives is dedicated to assisting young adults with disabilities, and their families, during the transition to independent adult living by making it simple and easy. Specialives promotes entrepreneurs and artists, such as Grant Manier, Grants Eco Art, and protege of Dr. Temple Grandin, Keynote Presenter. Attendees will have an opportunity to have books signed by Dr. Grandin after her presentation and Grant Manier will be available to answer questions about his one-of-a-kind Eco-Art, and will have some pieces of his original work as well as prints.
