Dear Colleagues:

A new academic year is almost upon us! To welcome the Class of 2020 to UTSA, we will hold the annual Fall Convocation and luncheon on Aug. 22 during Roadrunner Days. Colleges will hold an Intended Major Exploration the same day. I encourage you to participate in these activities to show our new students that UTSA faculty are committed to their success.

Because of limited seating in the Convocation Center, the Fall Convocation will be held in two ceremonies; you are welcome attend the ceremony of your choosing or both ceremonies.

Convocation (Convocation Center)

10:00 – 11:00 a.m.                      Students with Last Names A-L

1:30 – 2:30 p.m.                      Students with Last Names M-Z

Convocation Luncheon (Convocation Lawn)

11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.              All Students

Intended Major Exploration (Different locations)

3:00-4:30 p.m.                      All Students

Faculty members taking part in the Convocation procession are asked to wear academic regalia. A coat check area will be available at the Convocation Center to check regalia during the luncheon between the ceremonies.

If you have questions concerning the Fall Convocation or the Convocation Luncheon, please contact Patricia Graham or Charlin Jones-Chavez, Co-Chairs, 2016 Fall Convocation Committee (ext. 6110). Contact your dean's office for information on your college's Intended Major Exploration.

I deeply appreciate your willingness to participate in the Fall Convocation activities and look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

C. Mauli Agrawal, Ph.D., P.E.

Interim Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs
