

2016 AERA Hispanic Research Issues SIG Graduate Student Travel Award

The Hispanic Research Issues Special Interest Group (SIG) is pleased to announce the first annual Hispanic Research Issues SIG Graduate Student Travel Award. If you are a graduate student in an area related to Hispanic research issues in education you may apply for one of the Hispanic Research Issues SIG travel stipends for the 2016 Annual Meeting in Washington, DC.

Five stipends will be available. Each stipend will be in the amount of $500.

Application deadline: Monday, April 18, 2016 at 11:59 (PT).

Please direct all inquiries to the current HRI SIG Chair, Elsa Billings elsa.billings@yahoo.com

To apply, fill out an application and paste your curriculum vita at the following link.
<https://docs.google.com/a/utexas.edu/forms/d/1QOfxL6McydlrxtW0fLneYmIVZAOcdKPxajO-slmEEde/viewform>

You will need to submit your curriculum vitae, together with the following information:

- o Name
- o Email address
- o Telephone number
- o Institution
- o Your status/year in the program
- o AERA member number (You must have proof of current paid Hispanic Research Issues SIG membership.)

Five Recipients will be randomly selected after the following criteria have been met:

- o Applicant's paper was accepted for presentation at the 2016 AERA Annual Meeting and/or applicant received an award at the 2016 AERA Annual Meeting
- o Applicant attended the 2016 AERA Annual Meeting
- o Applicant is a member of the HRI SIG
- o Priority will be given to first-time presenters presenting within the HRI SIG, followed by graduate students presenting outside of the HRI SIG and whose presentation is on issues related to Hispanic/Latino students

Please upload your materials on the following link no later than Monday, April 18, 2016 at 11:59 (PT).

<https://docs.google.com/a/utexas.edu/forms/d/1QOfxL6McydlrxtW0fLneYmIVZAOcdKPxajO-slmEEde/viewform>

