

Undocumented Students: Needs and Resources for the School to College Pathway

Part of Abriendo Camino: San Antonio Area Students and College Readiness and Success

Saturday, April 29, 2017

UTSA Downtown Campus, Aula Canaria (Buena Vista 1.328)

Snack Noon – 1 pm

Workshop 1pm – 3:30 pm

Presented by Dr. Susana Muñoz (Colorado State University), Ms. Darsella Vigil (University of Denver), and financial aid experts Chris Goldsberry (UTSA) Carmen de Luna Jones (Alamo), with Eduardo Sesatty (KIPP)

This session will discuss implications of students' undocumented status for college admission and financial aid—covering both Texas and federal policy—and will address what services families can expect or ask of K-16 educators as students navigate the college pathway. This session is aimed at immigration advocates and those in positions to assist or guide parents and educators of undocumented students.

Registration for this event is free online at <https://utsasaturdaysessions.eventbrite.com> Priority registration ends April 3, 2017.

This event will also be livestreamed for those who attend online. Connect at \(site\)

NOTE: Expect heavy traffic due to Fiesta activities. Come early to arrive on time and enjoy a snack in hospitality room from noon-1 pm. You can stay late to enjoy Fiesta activities at Market Square.
