

Educational Policies and 21st Century Youth

Advancing Achievement Through Research, Practice, and Theory

Thursday, April 27

5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Durango Building

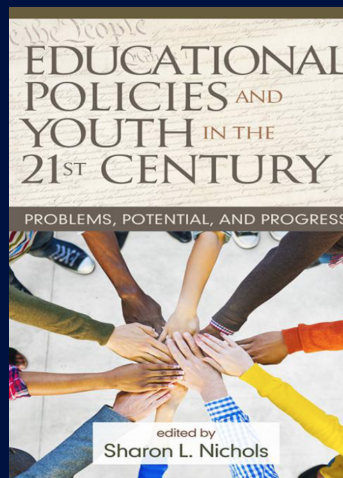

Southwest Room 1.124

UTSA Downtown Campus

(501 W. César E. Chávez Blvd. San Antonio, Texas 78207)

Sponsored by the Office of the Vice President for Research, the College of Education and Human Development, and the Department of Educational Psychology.

Free parking will be available in any unmarked spaces in the Durango Loop Lot on César E. Chávez Blvd. For more information, contact Rosalind.Horowitz@utsa.edu or Sharon.Nichols@utsa.edu.

Free and open to the public

Please join us for a Research Symposium of nationally renowned scholars who will share their insights on 21st century educational policies and the climate they foster for today's schools, teachers, and students. Our discussion will include brief presentations by our invited guests from around the country, commentary by our organizers, and a question-answer session with audience member participation.

Featured Panel of Researchers:

Dr. Robert Jiménez
Vanderbilt University

Dr. Valerie Kinloch
The Ohio State University

Dr. Francesca López
University of Arizona

Dr. Angela McRae
Catholic University of America

Dr. Julian Vasquez Heilig
California State University

UTSA The University of Texas at San Antonio
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT