

UTSA College of Education and Human Development

Urbino, Italy

Teacher Education Study Abroad - Spring 2019

Designed for COEHD students!

Take courses and participate in cultural tours of cities throughout Italy!

Students will take courses with UTSA professors and engage in service learning in Urbino public schools, work with English language or Spanish language teachers, and observe content area courses. Undergraduate students will be able to complete 12 Semester Credit Hours (SCH) of coursework related to teacher preparation and Graduate students will be able to complete 6 – 9 SCH.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES OFFERED:

Italian language and culture
ESL 3023 / ESL 3063 (Second Language Learning and Teaching)
IDS 3713 (Interdisciplinary Inquiry)
IDS 2013 (Introduction to Learning and Teaching)
EDP 3203 / 3303 / ECE 3143 (Child Growth and Development)

GRADUATE COURSES OFFERED:

Practicum Experience
 Relevant Methods courses

PROGRAM COST: $9500

*Airfare, tuition, and fees NOT included

CONTACT:
 Dr. Juliet Langman
juliet.langman@utsa.edu

UTSA
 The University of Texas at San Antonio
 COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
 AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

