

Sent on behalf of the Honors College Dean Search Committee:

UTSA students, faculty and staff are invited to attend upcoming forums to meet finalists for the position of Honors College Dean.

The Honors College Dean provides strategic direction and vision for the college; leadership in planning and implementing appropriate academic and co-curricular activities that promote recruitment, retention and graduation; and oversees a continuous program of long-range planning and development of the Honors College. In addition, the Dean serves as an advocate and spokesperson for UTSA Honors College locally and nationally, generates a culture of inclusivity and community, and thinks broadly about how Honors College assists undergraduate education.
